							as Non-Current instead of Current, despite default, based on expectation of restructuring. These actions overstate the solvency position significantly. The Company's response on Going Concern questions by the auditors are generic without a concrete roadmap. Further, the auditors of subsidiary companies have highlighted material uncertainty relating to their ability to continue as going concern. Management of 2 of such subsidiaries have cited support from the Company to facilitate going concern ability of such subsidiaries. The same raises governance concerns when the Company's going concern ability is itself at question. The Company has granted significant amount of loans to one of these subsidiaries. Additionally, an interest income of ?112.43 crores on loans and advances given to subsidiary is deferred without adequate reasoning. Clarification should be given on full disclosure of debt resolution terms, cane arrears, and liquidity position; a clear roadmap for performance improvement with measurable milestones and how the Company plans to continue to support its subsidiaries when the Company's financials are itself impacted?

FOR	FOR	Auditors have made qualifications in their report for Standalone and Consolidated Financial Statements. Although the potential impact on net worth could be significant if the carrying value of investments in Titagarh Firema SpA (Firema) and other receivables aggregating to approx. Rs. 173 crores is impaired, however, the underlying issues are stated to have been beyond the concerned associate's control. Further, Firema has received support from the Government of Italy, corrective measures are under process and the Company has given adequate justification in this regard. Hence, no major governance concerns are identified in this regard. No other governance concerns are identified with regard to the adoption of the Standalone and the Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company.
15-09-2025	Titagarh Rail Systems Ltd	AGM	Management	To appoint a Director in place of Shri Jagdish Prasad Chowdhary (DIN: 00313685), who retires by rotation in terms of Section 152(6) of the Companies Act, 2013 and, being eligible, offers himself for re-appointment. Bhansali (DIN: 01062853), who retires by rotation and being eligible, offered himself for re-appointment.	FOR	AGAINST	Compliant with law. Governance Concern: Remuneration practice appears to be skewed in favour of the Promoter Directors.
20-09-2025	Bhansali Engineering Polymers Limited	AGM	Management	Re-appointment of Mr. Jayesh B. Bhansali (DIN: 01062853), as an Joint Managing Director cum CFO of the Company, liable to retire by rotation, for a further period of 5 years w.e.f 1st April, 2026, at his existing remuneration of Rs, 5 lakh per month and commission, both not exceeding 5% of the total net profits of the Company.	FOR	AGAINST	Non-Compliant with Regulation 17(6)(e) of SEBI LODR Regulations: The remuneration payments and proposed remuneration terms appear to be over and above the legal limits stipulated for promoter executive remuneration under Regulation 17(6)(e) of SEBI LODR Regulations. However, the past executive remuneration and the proposed remuneration has been approved/proposed (as applicable) by way of Ordinary Resolution. Governance Concern: With past executive remuneration been on the higher side, governance concerns are identified as no absolute cap has been placed on the potential payments, remuneration is structured in a manner where significant portion appears to be guaranteed and past promoter executive variable remuneration has been same despite gap in their experience. Remuneration highly skewed in favour of promoters as against another professional executive director. The difference is unjustified even after accounting for the difference in their board association period.
